About This Game

Bunker 58:

Locked inside of Bunker 58 surrounded by unidentified creatures trying to kill you. There is only one way to survive, and that is to kill anything that attacks you. You are set with a selection of weapons ranging from melee to guns, and even have a torch for the use of light.

How much do you value your life, and how much are you willing to kill to keep it?

Features:

- Atmospheric soundtrack
- Enemy ai
- Open map (The Bunker - Open for you to explore)
- Animated jumpscare
- Unique Enemy
- Multiple weapon choices

Planned:

- We hope to add the following
- A selection of different maps
 - Re-spawning enemies, so players can enjoy enemies wave by wave.
 - GUI that indicates wave
- Purchasable weapons on wall (Used by points earned from killing enemies)

Please note that this state of the game is a complete version and may never change, meaning the planned changes above may never be added.

Enemies can be killed within around a 15 minute gameplay time, which is why we are planning on adding the re-spawning of enemies really soon! That being said, we still find the game to be enjoyable.

If what is in bold is actually what the developers believe then they must freshly birthed goldfish to find even a modicum of enjoyability in this "game". Absoulte bottom of the barrel scum as it stands at the moment.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=udW7opk0-3I>. lmao this game has about 35 seconds of content.

The only time you might get somewhat scared is when you see the first enemy walking past the room you spawn in before you realize you have a near infinite ammo assault rifle, and then you will notice how bad all the sounds are, and then you will stroll around a small bunker for about 5-10 minutes depending on your pace and that's about it, shoot a few bad guys, about 2 jumpscare, and you will double back thinking you've missed something when really you haven't. Really not even worth the price, let alone the 5-10 minutes you'll waste.. Can't even pick up a key and finished in 5mins.... 0/10.

8. Because that's how terrible it is.

Zombies don't have shirts or shoes, but also suspiciously lack hair and nipples \(YES I LOOKED AT TEH DEAD BODIES!\)

Please don't buy this game. You would be better off flushing your money down the toilet, having your toilet get clogged and then having your own feces flood throughout your home. YES. THIS IS PREFERABLE.

FECES.

I thought the 'about 10 enemies in an otherwise empty asset pack map' sub-genre of games has died with Lost Base Escape, but here we are, I like Unity Bunker or whatever this pack is called, but this indecent.

The store page at least notes that it's 15 minutes & that they may never update it.

I don't remember Lost Base Escape admitting that, but at least it or like Near Midnight had the decency to have an ending screen when you had finished with the "content", this along the lines of Bold New World where you are just left wondering whether you've done the wrong thing or we're here again in the Jim Sterling wheelhouse: we'll we are there & they even wedged in stamina nonsense.

Dire.. On June 6th, 2017, Valve shutdowns Greenlight. The day after, Acuze Interactives releases Bunker 58 as a full-game... while it's still pre-alpha!
